To Our Mercantile and River Friends

We desire to call public attention to the fact that we have recently received from the Board of Trade of the Louisville Board of Trade, the largest and most complete in the city, and have been prepared to make it available to every citizen at a very low price. Our prices are equal to the lowest prices in the city. Our workmen are careful, efficient and reliable.

Frugal Railroad Accident—One Life Lost—A Number of Persons Injured

The tender attached to the engine of the passenger train on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which left the city on Thursday night, ran off the track yesterday morning near Bird Creek, eight miles south of Clarksville, tearing up the track and precipitating two cars down an embankment. The train was carrying a number of passengers and a number of passengers in the second class car were more or less injured.

Further Particulars

We are indebted to Mr. J. A. Alston for the following additional particulars of the accident: The train, after running off the track, ran into and knocked down one hundred feet of trestle work. A German passenger, name unknown, was killed. Mr. Howard, the baggage master, had his arm and leg broken. Two passengers, names unknown, had their arms broken, and ten others were slightly injured.

A Bank Reckoned—A few days since the 10th United States colored troops, a regiment which had been recently mustered out of the service, were held up at this point and a number of the men were killed.

The United States Hotel—This old well-known hotel, which has been recently secured a new lease of life. It is conducted with spirit, energy and success. Located on the site of the old Jefferson Hotel, destroyed by fire some fifteen years ago, it is a landmark in our city, always recognized as the site and some of unbounded hospitality. We need not go through the history of this house—tell how admirably it was conducted by Mr. W. O. Adams, and afterwards by Hall's Hotel, and now by the present management, Mr. W. O. Adams, who has been in the United States. They thoroughly understand the business they have in charge. They are affable, courteous and enterprising, and are assisted by a corps of employees and servants who cannot be excelled in the land. The United States is a large and comfortable hotel, and is always ready to receive guests, and is always ready to receive guests, and is always ready to receive guests.

Valuable Dog Lost—Yesterday Mr. J. M. Johnson, residing at No. 63 West Jefferson street, opposite the transfer railroad depot, had the misfortune to lose a very valuable dog. It is a small black and tan terrier and had on a blue leather collar, upon which was inscribed Mr. Johnson's name. A reward of $100.00 is offered for the recovery of his canine pet—a little beauty—his address.

Another Burglary—On Wednesday night, in Jeffersonville, the grocery store of Foster & Rind was broken open by prying open the shutters and partially raising the windows, but the attempt failed to effect an entrance, as they were heard by Mr. Rind, who attempted a loud movement, probably that fact was discovered by them and caused them to leave a hasty retreat.

Revival in New Albany—A series of meetings, in progress at the Baptist church in New Albany, are attracting considerable interest among the members of the church, as well as of the congregation. The Rev. Mr. Lott, of this city, preached several sermons with good success.

Place of Meeting Chosen—By Special Order No. 50, issued by the Board of the Secretary of War, the Adjutant General's office, Washington, D. C., dated December 3d, 1936, the place of meeting of the new officers, appointed to examine applicants for positions in the new regiments, authorized by Congress at the last session, has been changed from Chicago, Illinois, to this city.

The Louisville Board of Trade and the Card of John W. Clarke

It is not a matter of surprise to our readers in regard to the Board of Trade having awakened to the fact that the Louisville Board of Trade, which has been voluntarily taxed themselves to advance its commercial interests. To accomplish this was our design, and, having been entirely successful, in that direction, we are now solicited to regard to effect in other quarters. It was our duty to probe an offensive ulcer, that had grown and festered in the very vitals of the Louisville Board of Trade. Another Cotton Mart

Louisville is rapidly attaining the position that she has long desired—that of a great cotton mart. The people of the South are appreciating the importance and value of the cotton trade to their community. The cotton trade is a vital part of the South's economy, and it is essential that it be properly managed and controlled. The Louisville Board of Trade is working to establish a cotton mart in Louisville, which will serve as a center for the cotton trade in the South.

Important Matter—How Far Does a Governor's Pardon Extend?

John Humphreys and Frank Armstrong, indicted for murder, are the subjects of a recent decision of the Kentucky Supreme Court. The court has ruled that a governor's pardon extends to all offenses committed by the defendant, whether or not the offenses are mentioned in the pardon. This decision is of great importance, as it clarifies the scope of a governor's pardon power.
